DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES:

This position serves the role of assisting in the assurance of statistical and client data. The employee reports directly to the DHS Assistant Manager of Accounting in the Fiscal Unit.

This is a complex independent position that involves in-depth knowledge of the case management systems and software used by the Office of Children and Youth. Day to day activities include data entry and extraction, State and Federal Reports, and the use of various software applications including Excel, Access and Word. This position involves an above average working knowledge of Agency-wide operations and the relationship between purchased services, professional child welfare services and information systems.

This position develops a mastery of various case management systems, with primary responsibility for Placement Transfers. The employee is the primary staff person for entering Placement Transfers and data entry and retrieval. The employee assists in reporting and providing back-up, developing a mastery of the paper and electronic Placement Transfer trail involved in data entry, as well as general software programs used by the Agency. This employee assists with clearance checks in internal systems for potential out of home caregivers, and provides backup for certain data entry tasks. The employee is fully responsible for or assists the Administrative Assistant in the Fiscal Unit with compiling the following reports: Children and Youth (CY) 28, Service Activity Reports (SAR), PA Department of Education (PDE) 1305, Adoption and Foster Care Analysis and Reporting System (AFCARS backup to administrative assistant), and various ad hoc reports. The employee helps with software training and assists in new worker orientations.

The employee has the capability of minimal to moderate trouble shooting for software issues with case management systems. Familiarity with other client information systems such as the Client Information Systems (CIS) at the DHS County Assistance Office (CAO) and the PA Court Record Search website at ujsportal.pacourts.us is helpful.

Works with JPO to monitor and maintain case management system as it relates to JPO involved cases.

Performs other duties as assigned.
