Erie County Hosts Northwest Commission

Erie, PA – The Northwest Commission will convene at the Manufacturers and Business Association for a Board of Directors Meeting on Friday, June 3rd. Erie County Executive Kathy Dahlkemper, a member of the board, will deliver opening remarks at the 10:00 AM meeting.

“It is an honor to host my fellow board members from the Northwest Commission in Erie today. The work being done by the commission to revitalize our region is crucial, and I am proud to be involved,” said Dahlkemper.

The Northwest Commission is comprised of eight member counties located in Northwestern Pennsylvania. The commission focuses on community development and planning, business and economic development, and organizational development in the region.
