Erie County employees recognized for service

Erie, PA – Erie County Executive Kathy Dahlkemper will recognize employees celebrating career milestones at the annual Employee Recognition Ceremony at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 2, at Hirt Auditorium, 160 E. Front St.

This year, 133 employees of the County of Erie will be recognized for their contributions to public service. The employees being honored represent 2,157 total years of service to the county.

Also at the ceremony, Dahlkemper will recognize several county departments for their recent achievements: the Finance Department, which received a Certificate for Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting from the Government Finance Officers Association; the Erie County Prison, which received 100 percent compliance during its 2016 inspection by the Pennsylvania Department of Corrections; the Office of Children and Youth, which was recognized for its Erie County Collaborative Independent Living Program by the National Association of Counties; and the Department of Health, which was recognized for its Pumped for Work program and its Lake Erie Harmful Algal Bloom Monitoring and Response Strategies program by the National Association of Counties.

Dahlkemper will offer opening remarks and make the award presentations. Gary N. Lee, Director of Administration, will offer closing remarks. A picnic lunch will follow on the dock of the U.S. Brig Niagara.
