County Executive launches blog, yearlong project

Erie, PA – Erie County Executive Kathy Dahlkemper is launching two new initiatives to help keep residents of Erie County informed about county government.

First, the county executive will post news updates and share other county-related information on a new blog, Erie County Connection. The blog can be found at <https://sites.eriecountypa.gov/countyconnection>.

In addition, Dahlkemper is planning a yearlong project, called Exploring Erie County. She will spend one day each month in a different Erie County municipality, meeting with officials, touring businesses or other facilities, and visiting with residents during public Q-and-A sessions. She will later blog about her Exploring Erie County days on the Erie County Connection blog.

The first visit will take Dahlkemper to Fairview Township on Wednesday, February 21. The public Q-and-A session will be from 11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. at the Lincoln Community Center Library, 1255 Manchester Road. She is also scheduled to attend the Fairview Township supervisors' workshop meeting and visit several businesses, as well as Pleasant Ridge Manor.
